4-H YOUTH DEVELOPMENT

NOVEMBER 2016

This is the beginning of the busy time of year for 4-H. Be sure to read your newsletter carefully so you don't miss out on some of the 4-H activities planned for you. As we prepare for Thanksgiving, I want to THANK all the VOLUNTEERS who are working with 4-H programs throughout the year. Some of you serve in several leadership roles and the programs we have in Trigg County would not be possible without you. THANKS SO MUCH!!

Company & Representative Kenny Imes; 4th place – Benson Stallons – buyers – Security Seed, Bridges Farms, Casey Creek Farms, Hancock's Market, North Trust Insurance,; 5th place – Kali Oakley – buyers – Delbert & Kim Roeder, KY TN Livestock Market, Trigg Co. Realty, Fowler Construction, Dr. Buddy Ray & Heritage Bank. Congrats to the winners and THANK YOU to the bidders.

Vice Pres: Lauren Oliver
Sec: Grace Hill
Treas: Sassy Thweatt
Area Teen Council: Abby Terrell, Grace Hill, Sassy Thweatt, Lauren Oliver, Daniel Parker, Jonathon Sink, Lily Ballengee, Matthew Smith & Becca Leach

Congratulations to our 4-H officers!! Other 4-H clubs will elect officers at a later date.

A MANDATORY officer training will be held on November 10 at 3:00 in Ms. Wallace's 5th grade classroom. All club officers will receive a letter.

Poinsettia Sales

4-H members will be selling poinsettia from November 3-14. The poinsettias are $8.00 for a 6 1/2" pots and $15.00 for 8" pots. 10" inch pots are available for $20.00. This is a great way to make money for your club, as they receive $1 from each flower sold. I encourage every 4-H member to sell at least 5 poinsettias. This can easily be done by asking family members and friends. The overall top seller will receive $25.00 and the top seller in each grade/club will receive $10. Tentative delivery date is November 29.

UPCOMING 4-H EVENTS TO SIGNUP FOR THESE ACTIVITIES. CALL 270 522-3269, 270-350-0395, EMAIL
